

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1892.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

IN THE "B" CLASS.
Mary had a swarm of bees.
And they, to save their lives,
Must go wherever Mary went—
'Cause Mary had the bees.
—Saturday Evening Post.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

PASSES AWAY!

A Famous Old-Time Resort Gives Place to Change

Wednesday evening the Elks, who some time since purchased the entire building known as the St. Charles Hotel, instructed the Board of Trustees, Messrs. C. D. Newell, W. W. McIlvain and Thomas A. Davis, to store or dispose of the handsome fixtures belonging to the St. Charles Saloon, and to convert that portion of the building into an entrance, reception and reading-room.

Time was when the "St. Charles" was known from Pittsburgh to New Orleans as the most popular resort on the Ohio river.

For full half a century it maintained a reputation for the excellence of its liquors, the high-toned conduct of its business, and the social and commercial standing of its clientele.

It was the one place in Maysville where professional and business men were wont to assemble and enjoy that relaxation from care that follows social intercourse; and it is a part of the city's history that Mayor "Dick" Dobyns not infrequently made it the forum of municipal justice.

But its proprietors, like its patrons, have nearly all crossed the divide, and there are none to take their places. So far as known, but two of the former are now alive, Mr. A. R. Peirce and Mr. E. Lambden, while the latter may be counted upon the fingers.

With the changes soon to be made the "St. Charles" will have disappeared, but its associations will linger always with those few who knew its famous past!

LEAVES TOMORROW

Rev. R. E. Moss Goes to His New Field of Labor

Maysville has been greatly blessed during the last four years by the ministry of Rev. R. E. Moss, who leaves tomorrow for his new field of labor in Franklin, Ind.

His pure and consistent life—"a life hid with Christ in God"—has left its impress upon all with whom he has come in contact.

He has walked among men in a humble yet dignified manner, and among women he has proven himself a thorough gentleman of the Southern type. His loyalty to convictions has called forth the admiration of the Church of which he was Minister. He has had a high ideal of life and has labored to bring the Church up to the highest plane of living.

Young in years, he was yet sober in thought; cool and deliberate in judgment, and with a heart full of sympathy. As a speaker, he ranks among the foremost. His delivery is splendid and his suggestions and teaching of the noblest conception.

His departure from our city will be a source of real regret to his friends, whom he numbers by the scores, both in and out of the Church.

May he find in his new field of labor his place of work, and be to them what he has been to Maysville.

May the richest blessing of Heaven attend him.

Our Showing of Women's Suits

The great majority of women who buy Tailored Suits want to pay from $12½ to $25. It is just within these price limits that we have made especial efforts—and succeeded—in providing a rich assortment. Not in materials only but in designs, is the selection very broad. There are Coats in all lengths from 24 to 48 inches, with and without vests, rolling or flat collars, braid, velvet, button or strap trimmed, and so on in variety. And Skirts of equal variety and style. We append a few descriptions to illustrate the point—

At $12½—Tweed and mixtures in brown, blue, black, long tight fitting coats nicely tailored, neatly finished skirts.

At $15—Tweed and cheviot, double and single breasted coats, plaited skirts.

At $17.50—Tweed, cheviot, Panama, three-quarter length coats, gored plaited skirts.

At $22½—Cheviot, tweed, broadcloth, in six styles, coats with vest, tight fitting, braid trimmed. Unlined gored skirts, each gore finished with inverted plaits.

At $25—Broadcloth and English cheviot, black, brown, green, gray, navy, prune, and as broad an assortment in designs as in colors.

At $30—Broadcloth with long coats, lined throughout with Skinner's satin—the lining that wears well.

At $35—Exquisitely tailored broadcloth Suits, long coats, tucked or plain, with rolling, flat or inlaid collar and plaited skirts.
